

A Collection of Gift Things

Exercising discrimination and discernment so that our exacting standard might be satisfied, we have selected from a collection of gift things to which the arts and crafts have given their highest expression, things which are at once useful and beautiful. Not in isolated instances, but universally we believe our prices to be lower than those of our contemporaries.

Leather Requisites

From extreme to extreme, from the severely plain to the most costly and elaborate requisites all are within the province of this department. You will find an inexhaustible collection of hand bags, vanity bags, envelope bags, of the newest leathers, walrus, morocco and pig skin. For the men folks we present bill folds, bill books, card cases, banker's cases, coin purses, cigar and cigarette cases.

For the Traveler

We offer a representative collection of fitted rolls, which represent the cleverest models. There are rolls of pig skin, sole leather, seal, crocodile and straight grain leather, lined with chambray or santon and fitted with the better grade of toilet requisites.

Medicine cases containing two to twelve bottles, with nickel or sterling silver tops are to be found in quite an extensive variety of models. Drinking cups, flasks, writing tablets, portfolios, collar and cuff and jewel boxes and music rolls are represented in the most diversified variety of effects.

A DOMESTIC COMEDY

Of the Highest Rank is What "The Missouri Girl," Which Comes to the Traders Grand Opera, Is Claimed To Be.

Dramatic critics unanimously agree that "The Missouri Girl" stands first among domestic comedies. The New York Telegraph pronounced it "one of the best written comedies ever seen in New York." The New York World calls it a "good play," and adds that the production includes "an unusually clever lot of people."
